FPPC Civil Enforcement Action Posted on Website

In response to public requests for the document, the Fair Political Practices Commission today (Friday) posted on its website a copy of a new enforcement civil action. The action is Fair Political Practices Commission v. Chad M. Condit, individually and as treasurer of Justice PAC; Cadee P. Condit, and Justice PAC.

The filing is a complaint for civil penalties under the Political Reform Act of 1974, as amended. The FPPC filed the action on January 10, 2006, in Sacramento Superior Court. No hearing on the matter has yet been scheduled.

The complaint is posted in the litigation section of the FPPC's website (www.fppc.ca.gov) at the following link:

FPPC Enforcement Division Chief John Appelbaum today (Friday) issued the following statement on this case:

"This civil complaint speaks for itself. We believe this matter involves serious violations of the Political Reform Act, and we are asking the court to impose civil penalties commensurate with the seriousness of the case."
